

CELEBRATE NEW YEAR'S EVE

Friday 30th December 2011

Welcome to Three Ways House. Settle in and enjoy tea and homemade biscuits at the fireside. Dinner tonight includes a buffet of the Great British Puddings that have made us famous, before the fun casino starts. Roulette and Blackjack await you with croupiers to guide you through the rules in an evening of fun and funny money! For the most astute gambler there will be a prize, of course.

Saturday - New Years Eve

Enjoy an English breakfast to start the day; why not - you are on holiday. The day is yours to enjoy. Racing at Warwick, the delights of Chipping Campden, Broadway or Cheltenham, or a country walk? We have arranged for Cotswold Wardens to lead the energetic on a six-mile walk with a packed lunch along the way. No doubt everyone will be back in time for for homemade scones with cream and jam this afternoon.

Tonight Mark Rowlandson and his team of chefs are preparing a celebration 5-course dinner for you to enjoy as our pianist plays to begin the evening's entertainment. Later the dancing starts to our very popular St Perdito Street Dance Band and the Phantasy Disco - something for everyone. They will entertain you until the New Year begins - and into 2012. At midnight we will bring you a glass of Chilled Champagne to welcome the New Year.

Sunday - New Years Day 2012

Welcome to the Olympic Year. Start as you mean to go on with a glass of Bucks Fizz and our traditional New Year's Day Brunch from 9 until 11! However, today might be the day to start that exercise regime you are planning to get fit for the marathon, and if you fancy a country walk we have the maps if you have the boots and the inclination. If you are a racing fan, the magnificent course (and shops) at Cheltenham awaits.

There is a more leisurely stroll available if you would like to solve all of the clues in the village Chocolate Treasure Hunt. Be back for this afternoon's tea and flapjack. For dinner tonight Chef and his team will be using the best of local ingredients to create a Cotswold menu featuring Severn and Wye Smoked Salmon, Foxcote Estate Pheasant, Gloucester Old Spot Pork and award winning local cheeses. There are lovely Gloucestershire wines to try too.

Monday 2nd January 2012

Great news - today is a Bank Holiday! So don't dash away, stay an extra night and enjoy a terrific rate for Dinner Bed and Breakfast.

TARIFF

Friday 23rd December

Welcome to Christmas at Three Ways House. Please settle into your room and then join us by the log fires in the lounges and bar for the start of your Christmas holiday. We will be serving toasted crumpets and handmade preserves with your afternoon tea.

For dinner tonight Chef and his team will be using the best of local ingredients to create a Cotswold menu featuring Severn and Wye Smoked Salmon, Foxcote Estate Pheasant, Gloucester Old Spot Pork and award winning local cheeses. Can we tempt you to a glass of English wine?

Christmas Eve

Will you take the opportunity for some last minute shopping in Broadway or perhaps squeeze in a visit to the Panto at the tiny theatre in Chipping Norton? Otherwise pop on your walking boots and enjoy some lovely countryside and exercise. We will provide the maps, fill your flasks and advise on which routes to take. Be back in time for tea and homemade cupcakes by the fire.

Before dinner tonight everyone will gather by the piano for Champagne and Canapes and to enjoy Christmas Carols sung by our local choristers. During dinner in the Restaurant you will be entertained by show tunes played on the baby grand.

Christmas Day

Christmas Day begins with a Continental buffet breakfast of delicious pastries, fresh fruits, yogurts, hams, cheeses and juices.

This morning you may like to attend a service at one of the nearby churches. Afterwards another Three Ways House tradition will continue when Santa is due to arrive laden with presents.

The centerpiece of Christmas Day is Lunch - is this the best meal of the year? Our team of chefs will be playing their part as they roast Local Free Range Bronze Turkeys and Prime Ribs of Hereford Beef. Sheila, our own "Queen of Puddings", will be making the Christmas Pudding.

Afterwards relax in a comfy chair by the fire and rest before we tempt you with Tea and Christmas cake. Tonight we think you will still be hungry and there is a Buffet Supper with handmade pork pies, cold cuts and many other dishes for you to enjoy. Entertainment tonight is from our caricaturist who will be delighted to present you with your own personal souvenir.

Boxing Day

Today we have arranged to take you by coach for a morning tour of the North Cotswolds with our guide Maureen Sutherland. Maureen will share some of her Cotswolds secrets and there will be a stop for some winter punch and spiced biscuits. We will be back at the hotel in time for a hot and cold buffet lunch. During the afternoon the bustle of Stratford on Avon or the charms of Broadway may tempt you away from the log fires. Stretch your legs with the Traditional Treasure Hunt around the village of Mickleton itself.

For dinner tonight chef has included a buffet of our famous puddings together with some of the rules, history and fun of the Pudding Club. To finish the evening there is the Christmas Casino and the chance to play roulette at a full size table and learn how to play Blackjack - all for fun money, but with a prize for the winner.

Tuesday 27th December

Today is a Bank Holiday so there is no hurry to leave us. The shops will be open with the sales in full flow. Stay tonight and enjoy Dinner, Bed and English breakfast at very special rates. Before Dinner chef will be giving away some of his secrets at the Divine chocolate demonstration and tasting and by popular request our chefs are preparing their famous chocolate menu including Plaice Fillet with white chocolate, Breast of Duck with a dark chocolate sauce and a plate of chocolate desserts! Don't worry, the menu features lots of other choices if you are not a complete chocoholic!
